

A private visit to the Ryedale Folk Museum at Hutton-le-Hole – 3rd July 2014

It was a pity that only a few people supported this event. As this was a private visit, there were no other visitors in the museum, so we enjoyed being able to wander round all the different buildings in the museum in peace and quiet in lovely evening sunshine.

Inside the cottage ...

The wild flower meadow – the cornfield flowers project

Future exhibits ?

